

Composite Risk Management Civilian Basic Course now available

The Composite Risk Management Civilian Basic Course for Army civilians is now available on the Combat Readiness University. This course is designed for Army civilian personnel and satisfies the CSA directive to complete the course no later than Sept. 30, 2007. To find the course, log into the CRU at <https://safetylms.army.mil/>, select My Catalog and open the Army Core Courses Folder. From there, users should then click on the Sign Me Up for the Composite Risk Management Civilian Basic Course and go to My Resources to begin the course.